~ Asian Canadian Art and Photography Fair ~

Saturday, May 17, 2014 | 2pm-4pm | Metro Hall Rotunda

Asian Canadian Visual Artists Workshop/Demo: There will be an experimental installation/performance. The visual artists want to free the 2-D piece of art from fixed wall space and put it into activities. The activities are improvisation created by the individual painters, such as dance movements, Taichi, singing, or some non-descriptive movements. They will invite some audience to participate in the 3-D creative action as well. The purpose of this experiment is to challenge and expand the boundaries of paintings with actions and movements.

Photographers Workshop and Demo: There will be an open discussion on photography with Asian Canadian photographers on various topics, such as the cultural history behind the photos. There will be in-depth discussions regarding the photos in the exhibition, including the choice of subject, what motivated them to take the photos, and the cultural meaning they would like to bring out.
