School Events:

Asian Heritage Month Lecture by Professor Chan Ka Nin (Music, University of Toronto) and Professor Chef Leo Chan (George Brown College) at St. Mother Teresa Catholic Academy - Toronto Catholic District School Board

Date: May 10, 2018

Title of Asian Heritage Month Lecture: "Do What You Love"

Conversational, Dialogue, Questions and answers, between the two former classmates and old friends from St. Paul's College in Hong Kong. They will ask each other questions touching various subjects, which will be relevant and interesting to high school students. Their conversation/dialogue will cover different stages of personal lives and professional developments. The underlined theme is "Do What You Love" to encourage students at high-school age to follow their own interest and passion in personal life and career developments.

Power Point: Created by Dr. Freddie Fu, another successful classmate, from the same class of St. Paul's College in Hong Kong.
